The Task Force on Education and Training (the Task Force) is established under the Committee Against Discrimination and Sexual Harassment to promote awareness of the Procedures for Handling Discrimination Complaints (the Procedures) and Policy Against Sexual Harassment (the Policy) through circulars/leaflets, seminars and workshops. The objective is to ensure that the Procedures and Policy are properly received and correctly interpreted, and to prevent discrimination and sexual harassment in the University community. The Task Force may request individual units/departments, staff associations or student bodies to render assistance in the promotional activities as deemed appropriate. It may also assist relevant units/departments to review their operating guidelines/procedures to avoid situations of discrimination and sexual harassment.
